Ethan is a skilled rider and a gifted tracker, but he has never faced the brutality of horse raiding. When his village is attacked by a ruthless band of raiders, he is forced to watch as his family and friends are slaughtered. Driven by grief and a thirst for vengeance, Ethan sets out on a quest to recover the stolen horses and bring the raiders to justice.

Along the way, Ethan encounters a cast of unforgettable characters, including a wise old shaman who teaches him the secrets of survival, a beautiful young woman who becomes his ally, and a fierce mustang that becomes his trusted companion. As Ethan delves deeper into the world of horse raiding, he discovers that it is a treacherous game where alliances are constantly shifting and danger is always present.

Horse Raid is a gripping tale of courage, loyalty, and the unbreakable bond between man and horse. Set against the backdrop of the unforgiving American West, this epic novel explores the themes of survival, revenge, and the indomitable spirit of the human heart.
