

Letters To My Father: Unraveling the Tapestry of a Lost Love

In the tapestry of life, the threads of our relationships are woven together with both joy and sorrow. The bond between a father and daughter is particularly profound, a sacred thread that shapes our identities and guides our paths. But what happens when that thread is severed, leaving us with a void that aches with longing?

In her poignant and heart-wrenching memoir, Letters To My Father, Crissie Ann Leonard explores the complex and often contradictory emotions that arise in the wake of a father's death. Through a series of deeply personal letters, Leonard delves into the depths of her grief, her anger, her guilt, and her enduring love for her father.
