

Short Poems From The North Pole: A Winter Wonderland of Verse

Prepare to embark on a captivating literary journey with "Short Poems From The North Pole," a Junior Library Guild Selection that weaves a tapestry of wintery wonders through the evocative lens of poetry. This enchanting collection transports readers to the ethereal realm of the North Pole, where the wind whispers tales of enchantment and the ice crystals dance in the moonlight.

A Masterful Blend of Nature and Imagination

Within these pages, renowned poets, both classic and contemporary, have channeled their imaginations to capture the essence of the North Pole. Robert Frost paints vivid pictures of "Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening," while Emily Dickinson contemplates the "Snow-flakes" that "fluttered round like doves." John Keats's "On the Grasshopper and Cricket" offers a poignant meditation on the passing of time amidst the winter landscape.
