

The Vaudois: The Last Faith Standing

A Comprehensive History of the Vaus, a Christian Sect that has Survived Centuries of Persecution

The Vaus are a Christian sect that has survived centuries of persecution. They are one of the oldest Christian sects in existence, and their beliefs have influenced many other Christian denominations, including the Protestant Reformation. The Vaus have a long and fascinating history, and their story is one of courage, resilience, and faith.

The Vaus originated in the early 12th century in the Cottian Alps of what is now northern Italy. They were influenced by the teachings of Peter Waldo, a wealthy merchant who renounced his wealth and began to preach a simple, apostolic Christianity. Waldo's followers were known as the Poor Men of Lyon, and they quickly spread throughout Europe.
